ACKNOWLEDGING OUR POLICE MEN AND WOMEN

Leader of the Opposition, Delia Lawrie, today joined Territorians in paying respect to the Territory police officers that have been killed or injured in the line of duty at the National Police Remembrance Day service at St Mary Star of the Sea Cathedral in Darwin.

“National Police Remembrance Day gives Territorians an opportunity to honour the men and women who have given so much to serve and protect our community,” Ms Lawrie said.

“It is an unfortunate reality that while protecting Territorians members of the Police force have been injured or lost their lives.

“As a community we are eternally grateful for their hard work and service and our thoughts are with the families affected by the loss of these brave men and women.

“We are also thankful to the families who every day send their loved ones to work to face these dangers, and to those Northern Territory and Australian Federal Police officers, Aboriginal Community Police officers and Police auxiliaries whose hard work keeps us safe.

“I was deeply honoured to attend today’s service led by Bishop Eugene Hurley.”
