ANIMAL HEALTH TERRITORY MANAGER

NORTHERN TERRITORY AND KIMBERLEY.

Exciting opportunity to join a global leader

ELANCO ANIMAL HEALTH is a global leader in the discovery and commercialisation of technology that improves the health and performance of food animals. A division of leading global pharmaceutical company, Eli Lilly, it markets a range of products used in the beef, dairy, sheep, swine and poultry industries.

Elanco is seeking to appoint a motivated sales professional to present the company's range of beef products to producers, distributors, veterinarians and advisors in the Northern Territory and the Kimberley region of WA.

Working as part of a highly motivated team, you'll play a key role in the implementation of sales and marketing objectives to ensure the company's continued growth.

You must have tertiary qualifications in agriculture, science or similar, and a comprehensive knowledge of the Australian beef industry. Sales experience within the animal health sector would be advantageous, although ongoing training will be provided.

Excellent communication, presentation and organisational skills are crucial for success in this role, as are high levels of initiative, self-motivation and a positive, 'can-do', customer-focused approach.

The position demands frequent travel, including nights away from home. In return, the successful candidate will receive a generous remuneration package, including a fully maintained company vehicle.
