Falcons flying high after win over Hoggies

REBEKKA WAKE

THE Tracy Village Falcons got the better of top-of-the-table Hoggies last night to win the highly anticipated round 18 match-up by four goals.

The Falcons' 34-30 victory sees them move to the top of the Darwin Netball Association table, and Hoggies drop down to second.

In what many believe may have been a preview of this year's DNA grand final, there was little to differentiate between the two top sides.

The Falcons' goal attack Sue Nalder was the standout player of the game, shooting 20 goals in total, from 25 shots. Up against an imposing and tall Hoggies defence in star goalkeeper Shannon Millar and hardworking goal defence Amy Lorenzo, Nalder was often forced to shoot from the outer edges of the circle and still managed to find the right line.

Together with goal shooter Lauren O'Shea, the Falcons were able to force a three-goal lead at half-time and put the pressure on Hoggies to force turnovers.

But Hoggies had no luck in the third quarter, finding it difficult to finish off the hard work centre Abbey Holmes and goal attack Michelle Winch had put in to get the ball down their end of the court.

Falcons pushed their lead out by seven in the third and it was enough to win them the game.

Hoggies' late swap of Michelle Winch and Deni Taulelei in goal attack and goal shooter proved a stroke of magic in the final quarter, with Hoggies slowing their attack line down and finding the space they needed.

They dominated the final 15 minutes, scoring nine goals to the Falcons' six, but it just wasn't enough.

"They were steady and consistent and really physical all game," Hoggies coach Jade Gooding said.

"We were up and down all game, a couple of girls got the time wrong for the start of the game so we started off as a bit of a shambles but as the game progressed we got a lot better and our last quarter was really good and I think that's what we'll take into finals and take from this game," she said.

Last night's game will be the last time both teams face each other before the finals, and both Gooding and Falcons' coach Tina Way concede that current third-placed Pints are the ones to watch.

"It's a three-horse race to the finals," Way said.

THE $4000 Nightcliff Carnival for male and females sponsored by the Nightcliff Sports Club concluded last Thursday.

After 16 games of lawn bowls there were two teams locked together.

The match committee had to refer to a countback before the team of Ralph Fair, Carol Fair, Barry Orr and Colleen Orr were declared the winners.

The runners-up were Echo Widemanski, Lynda Adams, Gary Cox and Julie Orford with third place going to Graeme Reading, Irene Reading, Jeff Cheffers and Lexi Rossiter.

The daily aggregate winners were as follows;

Monday and Wednesday – Lee Farrell, Catherine Farrell, Gavin Sincock and Nan Smith

Tuesday – Allan Watter, Jan Watter, Carolyn Smolski, Mick Petrovic

Thursday – Maree Matters, John Matters, Mick McDonnell, Gloria Scaife

Ladies Pairs – Glenda Tink and Lorraine Harris

Men's Pairs – Darryl Ikin and Rob Gillian

Mixed Pairs – Maree Matters, John Matters. The Darwin Men's Carnival and Nightcliff Ladies Carnival are currently being played with the Men's Nightcliff Carnival to start tomorrow.

The $150,000 upgrade to the Humpty Doo bowling green was completed over the weekend.

This new surface replaces the old synthetic surface which has been down in excess of 12 years. To celebrate this new facility the club has programmed social bowls for Wednesday and Friday from 7.30pm.

Sunday is also an option with a 9am breakfast followed by bowls at a cost of $8. For details call 8988-5440.
