Plate 1. Black Wallaroo. This species is locally abundant but restricted to the sandstone rocklands of Arnhem Land and the outliers. (Photo: I. Morris)

Plate 2. Common Wallaroo. This species is much more common in other parts of its range. It is restricted to the escarpment and rocky hills of Kakadu National Park. (Photo: I. Morris)