October Business Month connecting businesses with Indigenous Territorians

22 October 2015

Forging business connections with Indigenous Territorians will be at the top of discussions during tomorrow's October Business Month program of events.

Minister for Business Peter Styles said a forum will be held at the CDU Darwin Waterfront Campus tomorrow as part of OBM, to explore issues and ideas relating to establishing effective business communication with Indigenous residents.

"OBM is all about providing practical advice and skills to help businesses, and in turn, the Northern Territory economy to prosper," Mr Styles said.

"Being able to effectively communicate with Indigenous Territorians is a critical component of a successful NT Business.

"Topics discussed at the forum will include land and sea boundaries, population statistics, language groups, business and economic development, cultural activities and key organisations."

Another highlight of Day 23 of OBM will be the 2015 Territory Tidy Towns Awards dinner being held in Katherine attended by Deputy Chief Minister and Member for Katherine Willem Westra van Holthe.

OBM will see more than 190 events staged across the Northern Territory throughout this month.

To find out how to take part in OBM visit the website at www.obm.nt.gov.au or follow OBM on Facebook, LinkedIn or Twitter.
