

Bringing Back the Arafura Games – Territorians Have Their Say

February 14, 2017

The Territory Labor Government is delivering the election commitment to bring back the Arafura Games – which was scrapped by the former CLP Government – and will listen to Territorians' views and then take action.

Assistant Minister for Bringing Back the Arafura Games, Kate Worden, said a consultation process kicked off this week, providing the community and stakeholders an opportunity to have their say on the size and scope of the 2019 Arafura Games.

Copyright © 2018 Arafura Games. All Rights Reserved.