This plan reflects combined input from the community and government agencies and has been endorsed by the Minister for Natural Resources, Environment and the Arts. This Strategy is due for review in five years and interested persons and groups are invited to comment on the Strategy. Any comments received will be considered in the review and may be made publicly available.

The Alice Springs Water Resource Strategy is also available on CD ROM from the Water Management Branch. Further information on the Alice Springs Water Resource Strategy is available at www.alicewaterplan.nt.gov.au

Important Disclaimer

The Northern Territory of Australia advises that the information contained in this publication comprises general statements. The reader is advised and needs to be aware that such information may be incomplete or unable to be used in any specific situation. The Northern Territory of Australia does not warrant that this publication, or any part of it, is correct or complete.

No reliance or actions should be made on the information contained within the publication without seeking prior expert professional, scientific and technical advice. To the extent permitted by law, the Northern Territory of Australia (including its employees and agents) excludes all liability to any person for any consequences, including but not limited to all losses, damages, costs, expenses and any other compensation, arising directly or indirectly from using, in part or in whole, any information or material contained in this publication.

You are encouraged to notify any error or omission in the material by calling +61 8 8951 9254
Although every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy and reliability of this product, the Department accepts no liability or responsibility for the information contained herein.
Although every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy and reliability of this product, the Department accepts no liability or responsibility for the information contained herein.