DEPUTY DIGITAL EDITOR
NT NEWS - DARWIN

The NT News is on the move. We are looking for an experienced and highly-skilled Deputy Digital Editor to join our editorial team in Darwin at a time of key change and transformation.

About The Role:
Partnering with the Digital Editor, you will be responsible for the coordination and production of content across all digital platforms. You will assist with driving the team to deliver content that engages local audiences across all digital platforms whilst being aligned with commercial goals. You will help plan the approach for the digital platforms, ensuring that the right quality and quantity of stories are assigned and produced to meet publication deadlines and requirements. You will also take a "whole of product" perspective, ensuring that the amalgamation of content, for each digital platform, reflects a rigorous culture of quality journalism and drives broad audience appeal.

Maintaining a strong network of industry contacts and ensuring the Masthead is well placed to leverage these to support quality journalism is imperative.

About you:
You will be a highly-skilled Senior Reporter or Editor with good news judgement and adaptability to changing systems. You will have a hunger for breaking news, a strong understanding of digital media and an ability to work under pressure. You will also have some experience in video production and content management systems.

A natural communicator, you will be fast, flexible, customer focused and share our vision for the future. Your experience in mentoring and developing teams coupled with your ability to develop strong contacts within the community will ensure success in this role.

You must be available to work within a 7-day Newsroom, including weekends and nights.

Why Us?:
News Corp Australia recognises that the enthusiasm, passion, talent and commitment of our people help shape our future. Our people join and stay with our company because they thrive on being challenged and enjoy working in a fast-paced stimulating environment. We offer a competitive remuneration package; a focus on learning and development opportunities, supportive management team and fun and rewarding environment.

Interested?:
If this sounds like an exciting opportunity we would love to hear from you. Please forward your application quoting the job title in the subject line to: penny.henderson@news.com.au. Alternatively, contact Penny Henderson on 03 9292 1494 for a confidential discussion.

CLASSIFIEDS ADVISOR
CLASSIFIEDS

Northern Territory News (A division of News Corp) is looking for a customer service and sales-orientated Classifieds Advisor to join our team.

About The Role:
In this role, you will be the first point of contact for our Classifieds Advertising customers. Your key responsibilities will include answering high volumes of inbound calls, providing high levels of customer service, assisting customers with general enquiries and providing advertising solutions to customers. This role will provide a positive working environment within a hardworking and successful team.

This is a Permanent Part-Time role working 4 days per week.

About you:
To be successful in this role you will come from a customer service background in either a face to face or call centre environment. You will have high attention to detail with sound computer skills. Experience in a sales flavored role will be highly regarded. You will be energetic, confident and organized with an ability to multitask. With sound customer service skills, you will take initiative in providing our customers with innovative solutions.

Why Us?:
News Corp recognises that the enthusiasm, passion, talent and commitment of our people help shape our future. Our people join and stay with our company because they thrive on being challenged and enjoy working in a fast-paced stimulating environment. We offer a competitive remuneration package; a focus on learning and development opportunities, supportive management team and fun and rewarding environment.

Interested?:
If this sounds like an exciting opportunity we would love to hear from you.
