Ngaanyatjarra Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara Women's Council (Aboriginal Corporation)

Current Employment Opportunities now available with NPY Women's Council

Our Guiding Principles:
 Respect each other and follow the law straight - Conciliatory - Peaceful and Calm - Kind-hearted - United - Strong

People of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander descent are strongly encouraged to apply.

Ngaanyatjarra, Pitjantjatjara and Yankunytjatjara (NPY) Women's Council is a leading community service organisation that provides a range of programs to women, children and their families. Our work spans across 350,000 square kilometres of Central Australia and is critical to building and maintaining a better future for all Anangu communities within the region.

We are now recruiting for two roles, Manager - Child and Family Wellbeing and Team Leader - Intensive Family Support (Walytjapiti).

This is your opportunity to make a real impact alongside a dedicated, skilled and supportive group of people. The organisation is committed to working within the NPY lands for the benefit of Anangu people in the region and you will work in an environment and landscape unique to Australia.

The work can be challenging but the rewards are significant.

To find out more information and apply please go to our website www.npywc.org.au

We are committed to building a respectful and inclusive workplace, appointing the best person for the role, supporting diversity. All information will be held in the strictest of confidence.

TANGENTYERE COUNCIL ALICE SPRINGS

Tangentyere Council is a major Aboriginal organisation in Alice Springs, delivering a range of housing, social and municipal services to Town Camp residents and remote communities. The Council has the following vacancy:

EMPLOYMENT CONSULTANT

Level 5.1 ($62,902 to $65,948) per annum

Tangentyere Employment Services (TES) delivers the Community Development Program (CDP) for Alice Springs Town Campers and the Indigenous residents of Alice Springs and Amooonguna.

The Employment Consultant works as a guide, coach and advocate, working with job seekers to develop a unique Job Plans that develops a pathway for the job seeker to identify and overcome vocational and non vocational barriers in order to enter sustainable employment. Employment and participation activities may include community participation such as cultural activities, work experience, training, mentoring and activities that support economic development of the community.

The employment consultant focuses on the job seeker's abilities and aspirations, and works to directly connect each person with the right providers, employers and services available in the community to meet their identified needs.
