2018 People's Choice BASSINTEGRASS line-up revealed

8 February 2018

BASSINTEGRASS Music Festival returns to the picturesque George Brown Botanic Gardens, Darwin Amphitheatre on Saturday 19 May 2018 with a line-up that is set to kick off an epic calendar of dry season events in Darwin.

Minister for Tourism and Culture, Lauren Moss today unveiled an exciting line-up for the 16th Annual People's Choice BASSINTEGRASS in alphabetical order: Client Liaison, Confidence Man, Dean Lewis, Dune Rats, Illy, Paul Kelly, San Cisco, Spit Syndicate and Vera Blue; plus local artists and Battle of the School Bands still to be announced.

"BASSINTEGRASS was established by the former Labor Government to provide the same access to quality live Australian music events as the rest of the country.

"BASSINTEGRASS is a highlight of the dry season for music fans of all ages and first release tickets are now on sale from $75. I urge fans to grab their tickets now as last year they sold out one month prior to the event."

BASSINTEGRASS will deliver 12 hours of back to back new age and classic beats, chilled vibes and great company both on and off stage, with an eclectic line up showcasing the some of the best in Australian music.

Vera Blue, one of Australia's most exciting breakthrough female artists will grace the BASSINTEGRASS stage for the very first time after a stellar 2017 that saw her appear twice in the triple j Hottest 100 and receive her first ARIA nomination in 2017 for Best Pop Release.

Also making a debut on the BASSINTEGRASS stage is one of Australia's finest songwriters Paul Kelly. Paul Kelly's classics span a career of 30 years and 21 albums.

The NT Government will provide patrons with free public transport to and from the event on the Darwin Bus Network and four complimentary water vouchers to stay hydrated throughout the day.
