NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission – Multiple Positions

The NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission (NDIS Commission) is a new, independent government agency, established to improve the quality and safety of NDIS supports and services.

Our purpose is to work with people with disability, providers and the community to deliver nationally consistent, responsive and effective regulation of NDIS supports and services.

The NDIS Commission brings together various quality and safeguards functions into a single national agency for the first time.

With our national office in Penrith NSW, the NDIS Commission will progressively roll out into every state and territory by July 2020. The NDIS Commission was established in New South Wales and South Australia on 1 July 2018.

The NDIS Commission commences in Queensland, Northern Territory, Victoria, Tasmania and the Australian Capital Territory from 1 July 2019 and is now recruiting. The Opportunities

This is a rare opportunity to join this new regulatory body and contribute to improvements in the quality and safety of NDIS services to people with disability.

Opportunities are available in Greater Melbourne, Canberra, Darwin, Brisbane and Hobart, from APS Level 4 to Executive Level 2 levels and across the following areas:

- Complaints Handling
- Reportable Incidents
- Behaviour Support
- Compliance
- Investigations

About You

You will have a positive contemporary attitude to people with disability and a demonstrated knowledge and understanding of the NDIS Commission's purpose, vision and values.

You will be committed to systems improvement and the delivery of safe and quality supports and services to people with disability under the NDIS.

People with disability and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are actively encouraged to apply.

To apply

Look for these upcoming roles on on www.dfp.com.au/ndiscommission. If you would like to be considered for these roles, contact DFP Recruitment on 1300 138 337 or ndiscommission@dfp.com.au.
