Toy Story 2

Saturday, Imparja, 6.30pm, G (1999)

The seemingly infallible whizzes at Pixar followed up the resounding success of Toy Story with this equally as inspired sequel, which finds the inseparable toy duo of wooden cowboy Woody (voice of Tom Hanks) and spaceman Buzz (voice of Tim Allen) thrown apart when Woody is snatched by a crazed toy collector. You could not wish for a richer movie experience than what Pixar have cooked up here: from the stunningly realistic animation, ingenious new characters, frequent movie spoofs, perfect voice cast and the company's trademark bloopers in the end credits, Toy Story 2 is every bit the equal of its predecessor.

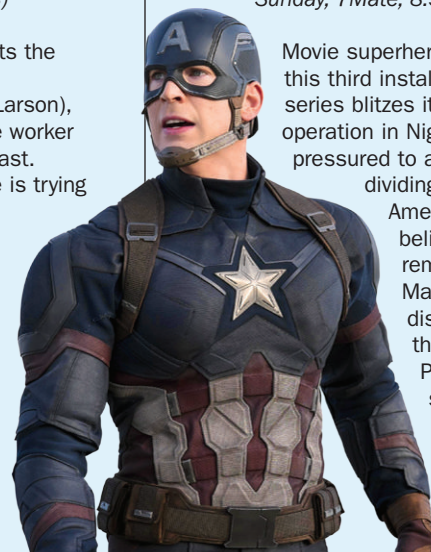

Short Term 12

Saturday, SBS Viceland, 10.10pm, M (2013)

This deeply emotional film depicts the struggles of compassionate 20-something Grace (Brie Larson), who is a foster care centre worker haunted by her own dark past. Committed to her job, Grace is trying to make sense of her troubled upbringing when she learns her life is about to change forever. Meanwhile, into the facility walks a disturbed young girl (Kaitlyn Dever). It becomes a battle for Grace to find a way to make peace with the past while still providing support to the kids who depend on her for their future. A raw, heartfelt drama that is impressively made and, while somewhat bleak, is enjoyable to watch.

Captain America: Civil War

Sunday, 7Mate, 8.30pm, M (2016)

Movie superheroes aren't in short supply, but this third instalment in the Captain America series blitzes its competition. After a botched operation in Nigeria, the Avengers are pressured to allow government accountability, dividing the team. While Captain America (Chris Evans, pictured) believes superheroes should remain without interference, Iron Man (Robert Downey Jr) disagrees, escalating into a feud that pits hero against hero. Parading an iron-tight (and witty) script, compelling characters and clever action sequences, this humorous yet dark and mature story might be the best superhero saga yet.
