TV PICKS of the week

Every Family Has A Secret
Tuesday, SBS, 7pm

The Letdown star Noni Hazlehurst swaps fictional drama for real-life spectacle to host this new SBS series which uncovers gripping family secrets. Hazlehurst meets six Aussies grappling with dark pasts, lies and half-truths, whether it is the ill deeds of parents or revelations of unexpected family members, and helps them uncover the truth. In tonight's first episode, Angela searches for the truth about her brutal father, who she suspects collaborated with Nazis during World War II. Meanwhile, actor David Field searches for his real dad. Expect lots of shocks and surprises. It's an emotional rollercoaster that will have you reaching for the tissues.

The Big Bang Theory
Tuesday, Imparja, 9pm, PG

In a couple weeks, after almost 300 episodes, The Big Bang Theory will end. Some may complain that it won't be a moment too soon, but even fans who have drifted away over the years will no doubt find themselves tuning in for these final episodes to find out just how the writers wrap up the science-spoof sitcom. Tonight, in "The Maternal Conclusion", one of the show's most celebrated guest characters is back. Dr Beverly Hofstadter (the wonderful Christine Baranski, The Good Fight) comes to stay at Leonard (Johnny Galecki, pictured) and Penny's (Kaley Cuoco) house. Unusually pleasant and kind, Leonard eventually discovers the truth about his mother's visit.

Going Places With Ernie Dingo
Wednesday, SBS, 7pm

Former The Great Outdoors presenter Ernie Dingo (pictured) takes viewers on a new trip around our beautiful country in this fresh season of his travel show. He visits some of the best spots on the map, but the real jewels in each episode are the people he meets and has a good old-fashioned chinag with. Dingo takes the time to have in-depth chats with the locals who call these places home, as they share their connection with the places they live. Tonight, Dingo visits the small community of Yirrkala, in the Northern Territory, to reconnect with some of the local Yolngu People. It's a stunning watch.
